INTRODUCTION

Conducting research involves many issues including a selection of an appropriate research topic, research design, application of proper sampling technique and adequate sample size, data collection procedure, data presentation, and application of the test of significance. Research methodology workshops may play important role in understanding these concepts for fostering research and innovation in the World.

This Workshop will help the Researchers and Academicians in selecting the topic for the Research, formulation of the Research problem, formulation and test of hypothesis, method of data collection, parametric and non-parametric statistical methods and report writing.

It will bring the opportunity for Quantitative Researchers to learn the application of SPSS for Data Analysis and LIVE DEMONSTRATION will help the researchers to use SPSS in a simple manner for Quantitative Research Design, Mechanics of Dissertation and Thesis Writing, Ethical issues in Research along with plagiarism checking, paraphrasing process by using the software.
