Mia cara Gowri Priya DEVARA

"Benvenuta "candidata" e auguriamoci; Care&Share, tu ed io, di meritare e ottenere la laurea in Farmacia per Gowri Priya.

Ma anche, e questo è il mio (non più segreto) proposito, di regalarti la tua strada, la tua libertà".

Sono queste le parole che ho comunicato a Care&Share, istituzione alla quale mi sono recentemente rivolto per trovare un'indiana che viva in uno stato di ansioso desiderio di ottenere cose apparentemente non raggiungibili senza un aiuto che modifichi il contingente.

Questo è il senso che trovato nella tua lettera e mi ha molto toccato: With a tear in my heart and a poem in my eye.

Ora, superate le emozioni di un incontro inatteso, basta ringraziamenti e fibrillazioni, il domani è come lo disegniamo oggi.

Dunque, ritroviamoci, ricominciamo da dove avevamo iniziato già 19 anni fa, è così da tanto che ci conosciamo che abbiamo dimenticato un po' di cose....

Allora, partiamo (parto: separazione del nascituro dalla mamma) per questo viaggio senza immaginare, ma toccare con mano quanto incontreremo, sperimenteremo è quindi conquisteremo la libertà che passa attraverso gli studi in farmacia e che sono uno strumento di crescita culturale.

I miei genitori mi chiamarono Luigi e sono nato 75 anni fa a Cinisello Balsamo e ho vissuto tra Cinisello Balsamo, Milano e Busto Arsizio.

Ho girato un poco il mondo e tra le mete ci fu anche l'India dove sono rimasto cinque mesi e ho accumulato molti debiti (moralì) non onorati.

Non ho mai amato studiare sui libri ma ho sempre privilegiato la cultura accumulata dall'esperienza pratica.

Professionalmente ho tentato diverse attività, ho cominciato da fattorino e finito da direttore amministrativo.

Ho avuto una moglie che mi ha dato un figlio ma poi abbiamo scelto strade diverse.

Ora vivo con una gatta che ha, intatto, il suo istinto di graffiare e mordere. Non ho mai capito se sono sintomi di affezione o aggressività. Insomma, una tigre (del Bengala) in miniatura.

Ho avuto diversi problemi di salute, mi sono rimasti i postumi di un ictus che mi capitò nel 2010 e occluso un vaso sanguigno a sinistra ha inibito le funzionalità della destra.

Qui sono necessarie delle precisazioni: la funzionalità della gamba dx andrà peggiorando con il tempo (da subito si è perso l'equilibrio e vrkasana mi è diventata impossibile) mentre, inspiegabilmente, la mano dx non ha alcun danno. Ma quando si tratta di scrivere non ne vuole sapere, il cervello trasmette comandi strani. Succede solo nello scrivere ma non, per esempio, portare a termine lavori di precisione.

A volte ho necessità di prendere appunti che regolarmente scrivo a mano ma dopo qualche ora, dello stesso, non ne decifro il senso.

Per questo non posso scriverti a mano ma devo utilizzare il computer. Aggiungo che la mia grafia, ictus a parte, è visibilmente cambiata più volte dai miei 15 anni in poi.

My dear Gowri Priya DEVARA

"Welcome" candidate "and let's hope; Care & Share, you and I, to deserve and obtain the degree in Pharmacy for Gowri Priya.

But also, and this is my (no longer secret) purpose, to give you your path, your freedom ".

These are the words I communicated to Care & Share, the institution to which I recently turned to find an Indian who lives in a state of anxious desire to obtain things that are apparently not achievable without help modifying the contingent.

This is the meaning I found in your letter and it touched me a lot: With a tear in my heart and a poem in my eye.

Now, overcome the emotions of an unexpected meeting, no more thanks and fibrillation, tomorrow is how we design it today.

So, let's meet again, let's start again where we started already 19 years ago, we've known each other for so long that we have forgotten a few things

So, let's start (childbirth: separation of the unborn child from the mother) for this journey without imagining, but touching what we will encounter, we will experience and therefore we will conquer the freedom that passes through the studies in the pharmacy and which are one cultural growth tool.

My parents called me Luigi and I was born 75 years ago in Cinisello Balsamo and I lived between Cinisello Balsamo, Milan and Busto Arsizio.

I traveled around the world for a while and among the destinations there was also India where I stayed for five months and accumulated many unpaid (moral) debts.

I have never loved studying on books but I have always favored the culture accumulated from practical experience.

Professionally I have tried different activities, I started as a delivery boy and finished as an administrative director.

I had a wife who gave me a child but then we went our separate ways.

Now I live with a cat who has her instinct to scratch and bite intact. I never understood if they are symptoms of affection or aggression. In short, a miniature (Bengal) tiger.

I have had several health problems, I have the aftereffects of a stroke that happened to me in 2010 and occluded a blood vessel on the left that inhibited the functionality of the right.

Here some clarifications are needed: the functionality of the right leg will worsen over time (I immediately lost my balance and vrkasana became impossible for me) while, inexplicably, the right hand has no damage. But when it comes to writing, it doesn't want to know, the brain sends out strange commands. It happens only in writing but not, for example, in completing precision work. Sometimes I need to take notes that I regularly write by hand but after a few hours, of the same, I do not decipher its meaning.

For this I cannot write to you by hand but I have to use the computer. I add that my handwriting, stroke aside, has visibly changed several times since my 15 years onwards.
